WHAT IS NEXT?

heART OF ART (Feb 10 to Mar 24) is a wonderful exhibition based on the theme of "love and peace in our world today" brought to life through painting, sculpture, pottery, photography and other forms of expression. A Grand Opening will be held on Feb 17th 6-8pm. Artists are encouraged to submit their artwork by 1/12 at events@kennedyarts.com.

BOARD WELCOMES TWO NEW DIRECTORS

On December 18, P. Jeane Goings and Jenny Dorich were elected to serve on the KHAC Board of Directors.

Jeane is a long-time resident of Kennedy Heights with a distinguished record of service in the community. She is past president of the YWCA and an active citizen in support of the Arts Center through LINKS, the Women of Kennedy Heights and Kennedy Heights Presbyterian Church.

Jenny Dorich first came to KHAC as a Business on Board volunteer from the Fine Arts Fund. She has an MBA from UC's College of Business, is an administrative specialist at Children's Hospital Medical Center and brings a wealth of expertise to the financial structure undergirding the Arts Center operation.

Officers elected to serve for 2007 are: President: Richard Cooke, Vice-President: David Brittingham, Treasurer: Jenny Dorich and Secretary: Helen Haberstroh. Six regular bi-monthly Board meetings are scheduled for 2007 starting February.

THE SHOW IS ON! THE SHOP IS OPEN!

"Holiday Treasures Guild Show" in the Galleries continues to draw rave reviews, and many of the pictures just flew off the walls last month. New art work is in and up for January visitors. Come feast your eyes and enjoy a moment of quiet contemplation after the busy holidays. Open Saturdays 10-4.

The Art Shop now features new stock and a new look for January. Unique art objects, including jewelry, note cards, paintings and pottery are reasonably priced for discriminating buyers.

GUILD ARTIST GOES INTERNATIONAL

Clay artist and Guild member Jane Black Goepper traveled to Nancy, France last summer with Clay Alliance members to share in a joint exhibition of work with French clay artists. Jane, as a member of the Cincinnati-Nancy Sister Cities Association, proposed this cultural exchange as a special reciprocal project for people of both cities. In September, 2006, an exhibit opened at Krohn Conservatory to showcase the works of clay artists from both cities, including Jane's clay screen now hanging in the KHAC library on the 2nd floor.

WATERCOLOR WORKSHOP COMING ON SAT., JAN., 13

Nancy Nordloh Neville is as excited as we are that several reservations for her tips, demonstration and critique have been made for this morning session.

The incredible news is that Nancy, a full-fledged professional artist, lecturer and teacher, is donating her entire fee to help support the Children's Arts Activities during our Outdoor Spring Show.

There is still time to sign up. Call the office at 631-4278 to reserve your space.

Time: 9-12 a.m.

Cost: $45

VOLUNTEER HAPPENINGS

December was an exciting month at the Art Center. We had Winterfest on Dec 1, the Holiday Treasures exhibition and our Art Break Program to close out the month. These events could not have occurred without the help of over 60 volunteers who gave their time to make these events a success. We thank all of those volunteers!

The art center is planning on expanding its hours and we need volunteers to help run the gift shop and serve as docents.

We are also looking for a highly organized individual who can help assist with planning art exhibits 4 times a year.

For more information contact Ilene at 631-4278 or ilene@kennedyarts.com.
