

heART of ART

February 9th to March 22nd

More than 100 community members attended the opening of The HeArt of Art: an artistic expression of love on February 16th. The exhibit features 25 artists with diverse and innovative interpretations of the theme in a variety of media. The exhibition will be open to the public until March 22nd.

Register now for Spring Classes for Kids and Adults at KHAC

KHAC offers a variety of art education opportunities for youth and adults at the Arts Center. Expand your horizons with one of our classes! We are accepting registration for our Spring Session now.

Classes for Youth

Art Connections I (ages 5-7) – Thursdays 4:00 to 5:30 pm ($25)
 Art Connections II (ages 8-10) – Fridays 4:00 to 5:30 pm ($25)
 Art Connections (ages 6-10) – Saturdays 10:00 to 11:30 am ($25)
 Drama Workshop (ages 10-14) – Thursdays 4:00 to 5:30 pm ($25)
 Introduction to Drawing (ages 11-17) – Fridays 4:00-5:30pm ($25)
 Photography (ages 12 and up) – Saturdays 1:00 to 3:00 pm ($25)

Classes for Adults

Art for Senior Citizens – Tuesdays 1:00 to 3:00 pm ($15)
 Watercolor Workshop – Saturdays April 19, 26, May 10 & 17 10:00 am to 12:30 ($90)
 Photography – Saturdays 1:00 to 3:00 pm ($25)

Classes begin the week of March 31st and run for six weeks. Please visit our website www.kennedyarts.org or call 631-4278.

KHAC Summer Arts Camps

KHAC will expand its summer programming for area youth. Our 3rd annual Summer Arts Camp for 10-13 year olds will return, a four-week concentrated arts experience in photography, writing, visual arts, video, dance and music. The camp will meet from June 9 - July 3 at the Arts Center from 9:30-2:30, Mondays through Fridays. Also, new this year – Arts camps for youth ages 5-9! Three one-week camps focusing on visual arts, theatre and story telling will take place in July. Registration forms will be available at local elementary schools and at the Arts Center. Tuition is subsidized by local foundations to keep camp fees are very affordable. Please call 631-4278 for more information.

Arts in Silverton

Looking for Arts venues in Silverton? Our Neighbor to the north Silverton has been a heavy supporter to the KHAC since the day we opened...and even before. Lisa Merida-Paytes, Silverton artist and teacher, started classes at the Woodford Recreation Center in October of '03. Her after school art was the first of 100's of classes.

And here's a short list of other Silverton Arts:

WOMEN WRITING FOR (a) CHANGE has begun its second year of classes for women, men and children at Plainfield and Montgomery Road. www.womenwriting.org.

SILVERTON ART AND WINE FESTIVAL

In the summer of 2007, Lisa Merida Paytes organized the Festival to highlight the arts and crafts makers in Silverton. Hundreds turned out for wine, cheese, music and art. This years Art & Wine Fest is on Saturday, June 21st from noon till 6pm at Meier's Winery, 6955 Plainfield Road.

MITRE BOX on the corner of Plainfield Road and Montgomery has contributed both the Arts Center and the vitality of the Arts Community. 7220 Montgomery Road

ARTISANS – Artistry in Stained Glass on Montgomery Road. The Steins are tireless supporters at the KHAC. No one has installed more pieces and spent more work and more party time at KHAC. ARTISANS - 7218 Montgomery Road.

More Great People –SUMMER CAMP would not exist without Stephanie and John Cooper Silverton residents who have worked for three summers to bring quality ARTS and FUN to five weeks of Summer Arts Camp. They have worked with the Center to develop a first-rate Arts camp. Also, kudos to the new HD Café at.6721in Montgomery Road that exhibited Summer Camp Arts for a month in its new café.

Councilperson Joyce Glover and Mayor John Smith.

Last but not least, special thanks to these two Silverton elected officials who attended our Summer Arts Camp events and supported the children. Joyce and John are great cheerleaders for the Arts and recognize the economic impact and the quality of life with the Arts. Thanks for supporting the Kennedy Heights Arts Center!

THANKS SILVERTON ARTISTS, BUSINESSES AND CIVIC LEADERS FOR YOUR SUPPORT.

Operation Hours: Saturdays 10am – 4:00 pm
NEW: Office Hours 9-5 pm Mo-Fri

Visit www.kennedyarts.org